Notes from the teacher:

This week we will be doing a lot of assessments for the 3rd quarter report card. Please be sure to have your child here every day on time so s/he doesn't miss any assessments. Also, review the skills listed below to help your child prepare for the assessments. I highly recommend reviewing social studies concepts as these tend to be difficult for most kids!

Sight Words

No new words this week.

Review Sight Words. Students should be able to read 50 sight words independently by the end of this quarter.

If your child is excelling with sight words, try having a "spelling test" at home. Pick 5 sight words each week to practice spelling from memory. ☺
